

Facilities

SEVA is located on a rural campus of approximately 55 acres in South Kortright, New York. It has an operational greenhouse, a fully-maintained three acre organic garden, a year-round hydroponic gardening system, classrooms and dormitory. Student projects involving solar, water, and wind power generators as well as construction of energy efficient housing are also under way.

