

Admissions

Courses at SEVA are available to all persons 18 years or older without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age or handicapped status. A nonprofit organization, SEVA offers courses at minimum cost to allow maximum participation. The registration form for class enrollment can be found in the Course Calendar and must be received at least six weeks prior to the start of the course. SEVA reserves the right to cancel classes due to insufficient enrollment. In such cases, each registrant will receive notification and a refund. For additional information write:
